There are several large tows of grain and produce in the Hilinois river southings, Storm, and S. C. Baker with tows of ice for Nashville and Vicksburg. The Monongahela is at Jersey landing with a tow of consideration in the second with pork and grain for St. Lenis. This great amount of produce will be immediately reshipped South.

ON BRAND BELLE ST. LOUIS, CAIRO, March B. 1887.

Dear Captoin: We left your moddy city yesterday with over two hundred passengers, and a more jovial set never wended their way up "big muddy." than the gallant "two hundred" just alliuded to. The evening of our departure was spent delightnaily by all on board. After an elegant supper, music was introduced, and "railroad time" was made by innumerable feet until a late hour. Every borth and cot was taken, and your "special," with many others, and your "special," with many others, had to spread himself on the downy side steamer, Mr , is full of tun, and added no little to the enjoyment of these on board. Mr. litenker, who is chief parson, though not as stylish as some clerks I wot of on smaller and slower packets, is every inch a gentleman-one those whom you will associate in your Am't North mind years hence with a delightful ride in most excellent company, not one of whose faces will linger in that mind's eye as long as the features of Billy Blenker. We arrived at Cairo at 2 to-Henher. We arrived at Cairo at 9 to-night, and leave in a few moments for St. Louis. Many of our rathroad fellow travelers take the cars here for their different homes. Gen. Dick Taylor was a passenger on our packet from Memphis to Cairo en route to Louisville and Cin-cinnati. As we are just about backing out I will say, Oh! river.
